Gary Sumihiro Named to NSBA Leadership Council

Denver, Colorado – Gary Sumihiro, founder of Sumihiro Investments, LLC based in Denver, Colorado was recently named to the National Small Business Association (NSBA) Leadership Council. NSBA is the nation’s oldest small-business advocacy organization and operates on a nonpartisan basis. Sumihiro, a recognized leader in the small-business community, joins the NSBA Leadership Council alongside other small-business advocates from across the country as they work to promote the interests of small business to policymakers in Washington, D.C.

“As a small-business owner, I see the importance of being involved and active when it comes to laws and regulation,” stated Sumihiro. “Joining NSBA’s Leadership Council will enable me to take our collective small-business message to the people that need to hear it most: Congress.”

Mr. Sumihiro’s career has progressed from attorney, General Counsel, Chief Operating Officer, President and member of the Board of Directors. He has done business in countries as diverse as Hungary, Mexico, Korea, Japan and China. In 2022, he was appointed by the Secretary of Commerce to the United States Investment Advisory Council.

Sumihiro joined the NSBA Leadership Council to help address the many critical issues facing small business, including tax reform, regulatory restraint, health care costs and how access to capital will impact small businesses. The NSBA Leadership Council is focused on providing valuable networking between small-business advocates from across the country while ensuring small business a seat at the table as Congress and regulators take up key small-business proposals.

“I am proud to have Gary Sumihiro as part of our Leadership Council,” stated NSBA President and CEO Todd McCracken. “He came to us highly recommended, and I look forward to our coordinated efforts for years to come.”
